What's New!

LOS ANGELES
MAY 17-20

Let's kick off ATD in style

ATD is busy. This is your moment to have some fun!

Join OpenSesame and our partners at the GRAMMY Museum Terrace on 18 May for a night of music, connection, and a few surprises around every corner.

Create your own vinyl art, explore the museum, sip on signature cocktails or mocktails, and leave with an airbrush tattoo. Last year's party filled up fast. This one will too.

Join us for May's Customer Conversation:
Turning content into capability with Driver Packages

You've got the content, but turning it into real capability is the hard part.

Join May's Customer Conversation to see how OpenSesame's skills mapping helps you quickly find the right courses, and how Driver Packages turn them into practical, on-the-job learning experiences. Walk away with a repeatable way to build programs that drive real behavior change, not just completions.

Curator's Corner:

AI with Kyle Gagliardi

If you're being asked to roll out AI training, knowing where to start is a challenge. We're making it easier to keep up.

Our updated AI Guides give you a clear path for the most common requests, from AI basics to adoption and ethics. They're built to help you move quickly, without piecing everything together yourself. Learn more in this short walkthrough video.

Watch the short walkthrough video to see how it works, and explore new additions from MIT Sloan and courses on tools like Claude to keep your programs relevant.

Explore AI for everyone

Make global moments more meaningful

Go beyond cards and celebrations. These two courses from OpenSesame help you bring more meaning to Mother's Day and Father's Day across your workforce. Explore how these observances show up in different cultures, and get practical ideas you can use to recognize caregivers, parents, and mentors in ways that feel thoughtful and inclusive.

SHRM-CP exam prep

Support your HR team's next certification without building a program from scratch.

This SHRM-CP prep course from Stone River eLearning covers the full SHRM BASK framework, key HR domains, and real-world scenarios, so learners build confidence and show up ready on exam day.

What's new this month

We've been busy building more ways to support your L&D programs.

This month, we added two new publishers to OpenSesame Plus (MIT Sloan Management Review and SkillStack!) and rolled out new resources to help you deliver impactful training with less lift. And if you're looking for what's coming up next, check out our upcoming partner session with Acorn PLMS on turning learning content into real capability.

See what's new and what you can start using right away.

YOUR WINS DESERVE THE SPOTLIGHT

Big or small, we want to celebrate what you're building!

Did you launch a new program? Drive strong engagement? Pilot something innovative with your learners? We'd love to share it.

Reply to this email with an L&D win from the past month, and our team will reach out about featuring you in an upcoming social spotlight.

Let's show the world what great L&D looks like!
